PLAINTIFFS' UNOPPOSED MOTION FOR LEAVE TO EXCEED PAGE LIMIT ON LENGTH OF MEMORANDA

Plaintiffs respectfully request leave to exceed the twenty (20) page limit up to and including forty-five (45) pages on their Memoranda in support of Plaintiffs' Renewed Motion for Judgment as a Matter of Law or, in the alternative, for a Partial New Trial that will be filed this week. For the reasons stated below, good cause exists to permit the page-limit extension.

Local Rule 7.2(a) limits memoranda to twenty (20) pages without leave of the Court upon good cause shown. This Court's Standing Order on Civil Procured further requires that Memoranda in Support of any motion in this Court shall not exceed twenty (20) pages without first obtaining leave of Court.

The relief sought in Plaintiffs' Motion includes a judgment as a matter of law as well as alternative relief that is more appropriately addressed within the same memoranda. The page-limit extension is not excessive given the relief sought and is necessary for Plaintiffs to fully address their positions.

Pursuant to Local Rule 7.3, Plaintiffs' counsel conferred with Defendant's counsel regarding the relief sought in this Motion and Defendant does not oppose the relief sought subject to Plaintiffs not opposing the same relief regarding Defendant's response. Plaintiffs do not oppose the same extension being afforded to Defendant in filing its response.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiffs request leave to extend the page limit for their Memoranda in Support of Plaintiffs' Renewed Motion for Judgment as a Matter of Law or, in the alternative, for a Partial New Trial up to and including forty-five (45) pages.
